To be eligible, referred party must be a first-time visitor to a participating Rockhaven Homes community. The referral offer is invalid if the referred party has previously visited the community, registered online, or has been referred through a licensed real estate agent representing the referred party in this transaction. At the time of the 1st visit, the referred party must communicate the name of the referral party to a Rockhaven Homes Sales Advisor, who must acknowledge the referral in writing. The referral form must be signed and completed at time of contract. The $500 reward will be presented to the referral party within 30 days after the referred party has closed on a participating Rockhaven home. See sales agent for complete details and list of participating communities.
